PUBLIC NOTICE

Security Update and Nationwide Curfew Announcement

In the early hours of Sunday November 26th 2023, some unidentified individuals attempted to break into the military armory at Wilberforce barracks. They have all been rebuffed.

The public is assured that the government and our state security forces are in control.

To enable the security forces to continue the process of apprehending the suspects, a nationwide curfew is declared with immediate effect across the country. We strongly advise citizens to stay indoors.

Please follow the official Ministry of Information and Civic Education channels and our official handles for accurate information and updates on the situation.

Signed

Chernor A. Bah
Minister of Information and Civic Education
